

Guide to the Manual and Toolkit for
The Launch by a Development Bank of its Corporate Social Responsibility Project

		Reference Pages in the Manual
Part I	The Movement Towards Responsible Corporate Citizenship	2
Part II	The DFI as a Responsible Corporate Citizen	4
	A. Defining a Good Corporate Citizen	4
	B. Relationship Between Corporate Citizenship and Good Governance	4
	C. Initiating and Formulating Approaches to CSR.	5
	D. The Corporate Citizen as a Steward and Initiator of CSR Programs	6
	E. Summary Comparison of CG, CSR and RCC	7
Part III	The Business Case for CSR	8
	A. The Business Case for CSR and CC	8
	B. Sustainability: Stewardship Role of CSR	8
	C. Qualitative Benefits of CSR	8
	D. Quantitative Benefits of CSR	8
Part IV	A Toolkit to Operationalize ADFIAP's Commitment to Good Governance and CC Under the Four-Point Program for Action	10
	A. Interfacing ADFIAPs Corporate Governance Rating and Strandberg's CRS Continuum.	10
	B. The ADFIAP CG-CSR Toolkit	10
	C. Stages in the Life of a Corporate Citizen (CC)	12
	D. Short Case Studies of CSR Projects in the SME Sector	13
	Case 1: India - Getting the unbanked rural people to join the formal banking sector through the assistance of NGOs	13

	Case 2(a): Thailand - Measurement of Credit Guarantee's Benefits	13
	Case 2(b): Thailand: Controlling the Guarantee Risk of the Government	14
	Case 3: Vietnam – Assisting SMEs in the Process of Integration	15
	Case 4: Malaysia- Stronger and world-class SMEs working closely with government and private sector	16
	Case 5(a): Philippines – More Companies Going to Micro-Insurance	16
	Case 5(b): Philippines- Entrepreneurial prowess by a “Filipina Starpreneur”	17
	Case 5(c): Philippines- Spawning Micro-businesses in the Telecom Industry	17
	Case 5(d): Philippines - More RP Companies Getting Involved CSR	18
	Case 5(e): Philippines: Getting the Unbanked Sector to Go Banking (RCBC)	18
	Case 6: Template for Filling-up the Summary of CSR Project to be Developed in the Workshop (Typical responses are indicated)	19
	E. Example of CSR Guideline	19
	F. Workshop on the Possible CSRs to be Formulated Using the Tools and Guidelines in this Manual.	20
	G. Workshop on SMEs Portfolio of DFIs	21
	H. Guidelines for Developing the CSR for Development Financing Institutions	22
	I. Approaches to CSR	23
	J. Social Accounting	24
ANNEXES
Annex A	Corporate Governance Rating for DFI in Asia-Pacific	25
Annex B	CSR Continuum Worksheet	29