

The trophy symbol is called...

The Development Trihedron

It features three interlocking pieces of glass forming a triangle which connotes the three pillars of development:

- 1) The Private Sector - which puts up and manages the productive enterprise;
- 2) The Development Finance Institutions - which provide the capital for enterprises to grow and prosper; and,
- 3) The Government Sector - which provides the enabling environment for development to flourish.